

“VOA”

Venturing Officers Association

The purpose of VOA Meetings are to provide a forum where youth officers can share program ideas, problems and successes with other youth officers and crews; to plan council and/or district-wide Venturing activities; and to empower youth in our council to take the meetings the leadership in promoting the programs of Venturing within each of our own areas. Please plan to attend each of our meetings through the year to help us generate some NEW council or district level program ideas and events to help us fuel the success for Venturing in the Old Hickory Council. For more information, you may contact George Clinard at 336-971-4172 or at: gclinard@yadtel.net.
